

Crash Reflection

What does this story and its characters say to you about prejudice and / or racism ? Explain with specific examples from the film to justify your opinion.