

Frontline: "On Our Watch"

The world said "Never Again"; then came Darfur.

Note: this film has some occasional graphic images (mostly near the beginning).

1. Describe some of the history of the conflict in the Sudan in a point form list under the years listed below. It is okay if you miss some of the details; we will fill in a time line of events together.

2003

2004

2005

2006

If the world believes in the phrase "NEVER AGAIN", then why does genocide and other crimes against humanity continue to occur in places like Darfur? Suggest some possible solutions to these issues that should concern the entire world.